WILLIAMSBURG, June 28.

The ASSOCIATION entered into laſt Friday, the 22*d Inſtant, by the Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes, and the Body of Merchants, aſſembled in this City.*

WE, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects of Virginia, declaring our inviolable and unſhaken Fidelity and Attachment to our gracious Sovereign, our Affection for all our Fellow Subjects of Great-Britain, and our firm Determination to ſupport, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, the Laws, the Peace, and good Order of Government in this Colony; but at the ſame Time affected with great and juſt Apprehenſions of the fatal Conſequences certainly to follow from the arbitrary Impoſition of Taxes on the People of America, for the Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue from them, without the Conſent of their Repreſentatives; and as we conſider it to be the indiſpenſable Duty of every virtuous Member of Society to prevent the Ruin, and promote the Happineſs, of his Country, by every lawful Means, although in the Proſecution of ſuch a laudable and neceſſary Deſign, ſome unhappy Conſequences may be derived to many innocent Fellow Subjects, whom we wiſh not to injure, and who, we hope, will impute our Conduct to the real Neceſſity of our Affairs: Influenced by theſe Reaſons, we do moſt earneſtly recommend this our Aſſociation to the ſerious Attention of all Gentlemen Merchants, Traders, and other Inhabitants of this Colony, not doubting but they will readily and cordially accede thereto. And at the ſame Time we, and every of us, do moſt ſolemnly oblige ourſelves, upon our Word and Honour, to promote the Welfare and commercial Intereſts of all thoſe truly worthy Merchants, Traders, and others, Inhabitants of this Colony, who ſhall hereafter conform to the Spirit of this Aſſociation; but that we will upon all Occaſions, and at all Times hereafter, avoid purchaſing any Commodity or Article of Goods whatſoever from any Importer or Seller of Britiſh Merchandiſe or European Goods, whom we may know or believe, in Violation of the eſſential Intereſts of this Colony, to have preferred their own private Emolument, by importing or ſelling Articles prohibited by this Aſſociation, to the Deſtruction of the deareſt Rights of the People of this Colony. And for the more effectual Diſcovery of ſuch Defaulters, It is reſolved,

That a Committee of five be choſen in every County, by the Majority of Aſſociators in each County, who, or any three of them, are hereby authorized to publiſh the Names of ſuch Signers of the Aſſociation as ſhall violate their Agreement; and when there ſhall be an Importation of Goods into any County, ſuch Committee, or any three of them, are empowered to convene themſelves, and in a civil Manner apply to the Merchant or Importers concerned, and deſire to ſee the Invoices and Papers reſpecting ſuch Importation, and if they find any Goods therein, contrary to the Aſſociation, to let the Importers know, that it is the Opinion and Requeſt of the Country, that ſuch Goods ſhall not be opened or ſtored, but re-ſhipped to the Place from whence they came: And in caſe of Refuſal, without any Manner of Violence, inform them of the Conſequences, and proceed to publiſh an Account of their Conduct.

Secondly. That we, the Subſcribers, as well by our own Example, as all other legal Ways and Means in our Power, will promote and encourage Induſtry and Frugality, and diſcourage all Manner of Luxury and Extravagance.

And that we will not import, or cauſe to be imported, any Horſes, nor purchaſe thoſe which may be imported by others after the 1ſt of November next.

Fourthly. That we will not import or bring into the Colony, or cauſe to be imported or brought into the Colony, either by Sea or Land, any Slaves, or make Sale of any upon Commiſſion, or purchaſe any Slave or Slaves that may be imported by others after the 1ſt Day of November next, unleſs the ſame have been twelve Months upon the Continent.

Eighthly. That we will not receive from Great-Britain, or make Sale of, upon Commiſſion, any of the Articles above excepted to, after the 1ſt Day of September next, nor any of thoſe Articles which may have been really and bona Fide ordered by us, after the 25th of December next.

Ninthly. That we will not receive into our Cuſtody, make Sale of, or become chargeable with, any of the Articles aforementioned, that may be ordered after the 15th of June inſtant, nor give Orders for any from this Time; and that in all Orders which any of us may hereafter ſend to Great-Britain, we will expreſly direct and requeſt our Correſpondents not to ſhip us any of the Articles before excepted, and if any ſuch Goods are ſhipped, contrary to the Tenor of this Agreement, we will refuſe to take the ſame, or make ourſelves chargeable therewith.

Provided nevertheleſs, That ſuch Goods as are already on Hand, or may be imported according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Aſſociation, may be continued for Sale.

Tenthly. Eleventhly. That we do hereby engage ourſelves, by thoſe moſt ſacred Ties of Honour and Love to our Country, that we will not either upon the Goods which we have already upon Hand, or may hereafter import within the true Meaning of this Aſſociation, make any Advance in Price, with a View to profit by the Reſtrictions hereby laid on the Trade of this Colony.

Twelfthly. That we will not at any Time hereafter, directly or indirectly, import, or cauſe to be imported, or purchaſe from any Perſon who ſhall import, any Merchandiſe or Manufactures exported from Great-Britain, which are, or hereafter ſhall be, taxed by Act of Parliament for the Purpoſes of raiſing a Revenue in America.

Reſolved, That a Meeting of the Aſſociators ſhall be called at the Diſcretion of the Moderator, or at the Requeſt of Twenty Members of the Aſſociation, ſignified to him in Writing; and in caſe of the Death of the preſent Moderator, the next Perſon ſubſcribing hereto to be conſidered as Moderator, and act as ſuch, until the next general Meeting.

Laſtly, That theſe Reſolves ſhall be binding on all and each of the Subſcribers, who do hereby each and every Perſon for himſelf, agree that he will ſtrictly and firmly adhere to and abide by every Article of this Aſſociation, from the Time of his ſigning the ſame, until the Act of Parliament which impoſes a Duty on Tea, Paper, Glaſs, and Painters Colours, be totally repealed, or until a general Meeting of One Hundred Aſſociators, after one Month's public Notice, ſhall determine otherwiſe, the twelfth Article of this Agreement ſtill and for ever continuing in force, until the contrary be declared by a general Meeting of the Members of this Aſſociation.

NEW-YORK, July 5.

A Copy of a Letter from the Merchants and Traders in the County of Eſſex, New-Jerſey, to the Committee of Merchants in New-York, in Anſwer to their Letter, deſiring a Congreſs of Merchants to meet at Norwalk.

Elizabeth-Town, June 8, 1770.

GENTLEMEN,

YOUR Favour of the 2d Inſtant, we have received and conſidered; before the Receipt of which, the Merchants, Traders, and Freeholders of this County, being called together by publick Advertiſements, unanimouſly reſolved to ſupport the Non-importation Agreement to the utmoſt of their Power; a Copy of which Reſolution, ſigned by us, and many others, is here incloſed, which ſufficiently diſcovers their and our Sentiments.----- As to the Matter of ſending Deputies to Norwalk, we are ſorry ſuch a Propoſal ſhould have been made. Had theſe Colonies never entered into any Reſolutions, a Propoſal for Deputies to concert a general Plan, might have been very proper; but now as our Honour and Faith is pledged to each other, ſhall we leave the noble ſpirited Inhabitants of Charles-Town, and the other faithful Colonies, to ſtand or fall by themſelves? Should you have invited the whole Continent to the Congreſs, and ſhould they reſolve to break their Agreement, yet this would not have been juſtifiable. Our Friends on the other Side the Water have a Right to be conſulted. 'Tis not our Cauſe only, but theirs alſo, which is now depending upon keeping or breaking our Agreement. Our Frieads in England, relying upon our Honour and Faith, have engaged in the Cauſe, and acted upon our Agreement. They have pledged their Honour for us, and ſhall we now meet to conſult whether we will deceive and leave them the Scorn of their Enemies, who are alſo the Enemies of Liberty and Juſtice?----Shall we meet to conſult whether we have Honour or Faith, or public Virtue? We cannot agree to it. If you had propoſed a Meeting for ſtrengthening, and further ſecuring the Virtue and Reſolutions of the Colonies, we ſhould have joined you, but to meet and conſult whether we will be faithful, would be a Reproach to us. We flatter ourſelves, that if you will be pleaſed to reconſider the Matter, you will ſee the Abſurdity, and lay aſide the Propoſal, which is the earneſt Deſire of,

Gentlemen,
Your very humble Servants."

By the Brigantine FAIR LADY, Captain LAMSON, arrived at BOSTON, in 7 Weeks from BRISTOL, we have the following ADVICES, viz.

LONDON, May 7.

Substance of the great DEBATES Yesterday in H. of L.

The following Resolution was moved by the Earl of CHATHAM:

"Resolved,

THAT it is the Opinion of this House, that the Advice, inducing his Majesty to give the Answer to a late humble Address, Remonstrance, and Petition, of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of the City of London, in Common-hall assembled, is of a most dangerous Tendency; inasmuch as thereby, the Exercise of the clearest Rights of the Subject (namely, to petition the King for Redress of Grievances; to complain of Violation of the Freedom of Election; to pray Dissolution of Parliament; to point out Malpractices in Administration; and to urge the Removal of evil Ministers) has, under Pretence of reproving certain Parts of the said Remonstrance and Petition, by the Generality of one compendious Word, CONTENTS, been indiscriminately checked with Reprimand; and the afflicted Citizens of London have heard from the Throne itself, that the Contents of their humble Address, Remonstrance, and Petition, laying their Complaints and Injuries at the Feet of the Sovereign, as Father of his People, able and willing to redress them, cannot but be considered by his Majesty, as disrespectful to himself, injurious to his Parliament, and irreconcilable to the Principles of the Constitution."

This Motion being regularly read, the Mover spoke to the following Purport;

"My Lords,

"I am to consider, in Consequence of this Motion, what it was the Lord Mayor, &c. of the City of London requested, in order to discover what Reasons they gave, by this Requisition, for such an Answer---an Answer so harsh, that it baffles my Reading in the History of this Country to equal it. They requested, my Lords, very humbly, a Restoration of the Freedom of Election; a Dismission of unjust Servants, and a Dissolution of a Parliament that protected them, as they (the Citizens of London) could not; legally, be represented by such. Now, my Lords, I do avow the Truth of this Petition; and I do likewise avow, that the Citizens of London, with the rest of his Majesty's Subjects, have a Right to petition, not only by Magna Charta, and the Bill of Rights, but by a Variety of Acts of Parliament, numerous as they are expressive. Now, my Lords, let us consider the Answer. No particular Part of it is replied to, but the whole Contents is at once disposed of. "That this Petition was disrespectful to himself (the King) injurious to his Parliament, and irreconcilable to the Principles of the Constitution."

"I am too well acquainted, my Lords, with the Benignity and Mildness of his Majesty's Heart, to think him capable of giving such an Answer-----nor could he do it, with Propriety, either in his regal or personal Capacity. I must beg your Patience, my Lords, to consider this a little more attentively: First, "Disrespectful to himself." How is a King to know this! Is he a Judge what is disrespectful to him? No, my Lords; the Laws are to determine this for him, the just Interpreters of Offences. Injurious to my Parliament: How injurious to Parliament? when the very Nature of Part of the Petition refers to that Freedom of Election in the People, by which they became a House of Judicature; Irreconcileable to the Principles of the Constitution, when the very Essence of the Constitution, not only permits, but requires, petitioning the Throne, and what the Stuarts never dared to thwart in the Zenith of Power. I repeat again, my Lords, the King could never give such an Answer from himself; I have too established an Opinion of his Head and Heart; and indeed, my Lords, poor as my Opinion is of Administration, I can hardly think it was a joint Advice, but the Opinion of one, or a few; for it is impossible, but if there were many, who were consulted about this Measure, some one of them must see the Absurdity of it.----For, let me tell you, whoever they were (I do not care of what Consequence) they were either Fools or Knaves; if the latter, they deserve to be treated with the just Contempt of an injured People; if the former, they ought to have been sent to School, before they were suffered to take the Lead in public Office.

"When I mentioned the Livery of London, I thought I saw a Sneer upon some Faces; but let me tell you, my Lords, though I have the Honour to sit in this illustrious House, as a Peer of the Realm, coinciding with these honest Citizens in Opinion, I am proud of the Honour of associating my Name with them. And let me tell the noblest of you all, it would be an Honour to you. The Livery of London, my Lords, were respectable at the Time of Cæsar's Invasion; the Lord Mayor of London was a Principal among the Twenty-five Barons who received Magna Charta from King John, and they have ever since been considered to have a principal Weight in all Affairs of Government. How then have these respectable Characters been treated? They have been sent away sore afflicted from his Majesty's Presence, and reprimanded for pursuing their undoubted Privileges.

"I remember, my Lords, when Greece was losing her Freedom, Philip of Macedon (if my Memory serves me) figuratively said, she had lost an Eye. I may very well apply this Expression to the Stab our Constitution received in the Election for Middlesex, and say, she has lost an Eye, and add, that the other Eye is so confused, and hurt in Consequence, that I am afraid a total Darkness will soon overspread the Face of the Constitution; for I do avow it in my Place in this illustrious Assembly, that Col. Luttrell is no Representative of the People, but a Nominee, thrust in by Foes to the Laws of this Land, and the Principles---the established Principles of the Constitution."

Lord Pomfret made a short Answer to this Speech. He observed, "that the H. had been of late almost totally taken up by a popular Nobleman, on a popular Subject, and that he was sorry to find Business so much impeded by Requisitions incongruous in their very Natures; as if these Noble Lords would, in the Course of about six Weeks, so change their Opinions, as now to condemn a Measure they had then approved of, by addressing his Majesty on the Propriety of his Answer."

The Earl of Suffolk replied to him. He observed, "it was no unusual Thing for the greatest Lawyers to reverse their Decrees; and he appealed to two Noble Lords on the Wool-pack (meaning Lords Mansfield and Camden) whether they did not lately declare, they should be always ready to do so, when convinced that they had erred; but, he said, he was afraid the Public had to do with a perverse Ministry, who seemed pleased in thwarting their Measures, as appeared plainly in their different Treatment of the People of Ireland and England; in the former Country to public Desire (after they had taken away their Money) they dissolved that Parliament, though its Dissolution is echoed for from every Part of the Kingdom."

Lord Shelburne spoke next, and called upon the Ministry to reply. "No, my Lords, continued he, you sit secure in your Majority; one while taking Shelter behind the Throne, another while behind the House of Commons, and another while behind the House of Lords. Conscious of the Rottenness of your Cause, you dare not trust to it!----I remember, when I was first in Administration, upon a new Tax, I was called upon to defend it. My Silence was imputed to my Incapacity. I now call in Turn upon you, and desire you will defend yourselves. Some of you remember the Day well, if not, I will put you in Mind of it, by mentioning the Words----Spade and Mattock. What, my Lords, quite silent!-----Yes, I see plainly what you so manfully depend on;-----but let me tell you, you have got, in the Public, a Wolf by the Ear, that if he does not bite you, he will worry you into Justice."

Lord Temple stood up, and conjured them to make some Defence. He begged it as a Favour, and he was not used to ask Favours, he said;---for their own Sakes he entreated them to make some Defence; to say something for themselves. He called them the dumb Administration. He congratulated them upon their Silence, which was convincing to the Public, they were not able to make any Defence against the Noble Lord, who made the Motion, that they were utterly incapable of making any Defence at all.

A Pause now ensuing for some Time, and none of the Ministry replying, the Duke of Richmond rose up, and called upon them, a second Time, to defend themselves. "I call upon Administration to defend themselves. A Noble Lord, says he, who spoke just now (meaning Lord Pomfret) harped upon an Expression, dropped by a Noble Lord (Lord Chatham) relative to secret Influence, and seemed to call for an Explanation upon that Phrase. I will explain it to that Noble Lord; that secret Influence, are Measures adopted by a Sett of Men, who, on his Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these Realms, listed under the Banners of the Earl of Bute, and have ever since directed their Attention more to Intrigues, and their own Emoluments, than the Good of the Public. This is that secret Influence; and if that Noble Lord, or his Adherents, want to be further informed, I refer them to an excellent Pamphlet just published, called, Thoughts on the Cause of the present Discontents."

At the End of every Speech, the Friends of Administration called out, the Question! the Question! and it being near six o'Clock, the House divided; when there appeared 85 against the Motion to 37 for it; so that the Business was over by six, which was expected to last till Midnight.

There were twenty-two Bishops in the House of Peers, two of whom, viz. Dr. Ewer, Bishop of Bangor, and Dr. Kepple, Bishop of Exeter, voted on the Side of the Minority.

A Protest was entered and signed this Day, against the above Determination.

Speakers for the Motion.	Speakers against it.
Duke of Richmond,	Duke of Grafton.
Lord Chatham,	Lord Denbigh,
Lord Lyttleton,	Lord Mansfield,
Lord Camden,	Lord Egmont,
Lord Shelburne,	Lord Pomfret,
Lord Stanhope.	Lord Weymouth,
	Lord Gower.

May 8. It is asserted, that the parliamentary Enquiry into the late Disturbances at Boston in New-England, must be suspended till the Arrival of some Papers, in Answer to those lately dispatched for a respectable Personage here.

We are informed, that Governor Bernard will embark for his Government of Massachusetts-Bay, on board of one of the Men of War appointed to convoy four Regiments to North-America, Preparations, it is said, being actually now making by his Excellency for that Purpose.

We are assured, that at the C-----l, with regard to the present State of Affairs in America, very coercive Means were advised, and adopted, and are now preparing to be employed.

It is rumoured, that the Chief Governor of a certain Colony, on his being lately required to repair to the same, was so much afraid to comply with the Demand, that he begged Leave to retire on a Pension, which was refused.

It is asserted at the West-End of the Town, that his Grace the Duke of Ancaster will be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and that his Grace the Duke of Beaufort will succeed him as Master of the Horse to the King.

Both Houses are expected to sit late every Night next Week, till they break up for the present Session. On which Account it may reasonably be inferred, that Affairs of great Importance are to be agitated.

A great Patriot of high Rank in his last Oration said, that he considered the Freedom of Election, and the Right of petitioning the Throne, as the Eyes of the Constitution; that the One, in the Case of the Middlesex Election, had been totally put out; and the other, by a certain Answer to a late Remonstrance, had received such a Blow, that it had a very dangerous Film grown over it, and that it would require the Abilities of a very able political Oculist to remove it.

A certain great Man, in his Harangue on Friday, in a certain Society, speaking of a certain Answer, said, that he did not mean any Thing personal to the baneful Advice that he detested, and spoke against; not but that if the Adviser would step forth and declare himself, he should then more personally announce his Sentiments. While he was speaking the above, he had his Eye on a certain W--l P--k, "and Felix trembled."

This Morning some Advices were received from his Majesty's Consul at Scanderoon, by the Way of Venice, which mention, that a Revolt was premeditated in Syria and Palestine to throw off the Turkish Yoke.

We are informed, that Lord Chatham and his Adherents, have had some singular Overtures made to them from a certain Quarter, which have been refused.

Letters from Bourdeaux bring an Account of a terrible Accident that happened there on Sunday, the 8th Instant, by the raising of the Waters of the Garronne. That River was full of Chalops and small Vessels, laden with the Goods and Moveables of poor People. A large Tree, borne down by the Violence of the Current, broke the Cable of an old Hulk, which set adrift five or six Ships, and these drew along with them a Hundred of those Small-Craft, which were all driven towards the Sea. The Sight was dreadful. The Crews of many of these Vessels happened to be ashore; those who were on board could do nothing but pray to GOD to have Mercy upon them. Most of the Small-Craft perished with all those on board; three or four of the Ships were entirely sunk, and every one of the Rest were either run a Ground, or shared the Fate of those that perished. The whole Loss is estimated at Six Millions of Livres.

Since the Americans are become Oeconomists, and intend to lay aside the Custom of drinking Tea, it were to be wished, for the public Good, that English Ladies would introduce into Fashion the salutary Plants that are the Growth of this Country, instead of destroying their Constitutions by the excessive Use of a pernicious East-India Vegetable.

It is said, that the Dispatches lately received from France, were relative to the Permission given by the Government to some Officers, and inferior Seamen, to serve on board the Russian Fleet.

A Correspondent gives us the following Intelligence:

Wednesday there were as great Debates in the House of L---s as have been this Session: The Earls Temple and Chatham, and the Marquis of Rockingham, spoke a great deal, and particularly Lord Chatham, who said, that he hoped the noble Lords would take into serious Consideration the unhappy State of Boston, and not suffer the military Force to act so inconsistently with the Laws of Humanity and Bravery, as true Courage, he observed, consisted not in Slaughter, but in Acts of Generosity and Mercy; and added, that though some Lords had very high Notions of military Force, he would dare affirm, that Lenity and Calmness would alone subdue the party Rage which reigned in all his M------'s Dominions.

Lord M---ch---t afterwards stood up and spoke to the following Effect: He said, that what the noble Lord had just mentioned he agreed to; but with this Difference, that he believed the Americans were such an obstinate People, that he thought Lenity would only heighten their too haughty Opinion of their own Sufficiency.

To which the patriotic Earl replied, that he knew Lord M---ch---t was no Friend to the Americans, but he hoped he would, in this Case, however, throw off his Disgust, and let Impartiality for once take Part in the Distresses of an afflicted People.

May 10. On Wednesday Evening Colonel Barre, in a certain Assembly, commented largely on a Letter of Orders, said to be given by a Great Personage, and communicated to the Public by Lord Barrington, Secretary at War, relative to an attrocious Crime, committed by three or four private Men in the Foot Guards, who effected the Rescue of a General Officer; and the Colonel humourously remarked, that as the Crime was only an attrocious Crime, it was as usual, of late thought highly worthy of having no other Notice taken of it, than a verbal Reprimand.

A Court Lawyer has advised the Majority, of both Clubs, that whenever any future patriotic Questions shall be agitated by Lord Chatham, and his adherents, to suffer these Champions to exhaust themselves in their Thread bare Declamations on Grievances and Apprehensions, till a Division is called for, when the ministerial Party are sure to gain in Numbers what they lose in Argument and common Sense.

Thursday, the 17th instant, is fixed for proroguing both Houses of Parliament, and putting an End to the present Session.

Captain NUTTLE, from LISBON, brought a Paper of the 12th of May, from which we have extracted as follows.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 17.

SIX Men of War of the Line, two of which carry 60 Guns, and 18 Half Gallies, went out of this Harbour Yesterday, and cast Anchor at Besiktasch, about a Quarter of a League off, where they are to be provided with Necessaries, and then sail for the Black Sea.

In the Night of the 11th Instant a Fire broke out in the Quarter of Cassim-Pascha, which is separated from the Suburb of Pera only by a Church-yard. About 150 Houses and Shops were burnt down, and the Grand Signor suffers a Loss of 100,000 Piastres in Saddles, and other Necessaries for the Army.

The Plague has broke out again in some Places, which is attributed to the uncommon Warmth of the Weather.

Warsaw, April 18. An Express, arrived from the Russian Army last Sunday, hath brought Advice, that the Tartars, who had endeavoured to prevent the Russians passing the Niester near Bender, have been beaten; many Horses were taken, and they are retired to Kaeserhau. They have ravaged the Country in the Environs of Miakowski, Taleczin, and Berzada; they have carried away every Thing, except old and infirm Persons, whom they murdered.

General Panin hath made Preparations for commencing the Siege of Bender in the Month of May.

Letters from Walachia import, that Lieut. Gen. Stoffeln hath lately beaten a Body of Turks who had passed the Danube, made 700 of them Prisoners, and sent them to Choczim.

The Confederates disunite more and more. Major Ronne hath beaten them in Great Poland, and Major Drewitz in Little Poland. We are assured that the famous Mozawski is taken, and that Sawa hath been defeated, and is fled to Prussia.

It is said that the Plague is broke out in the Turkish Army. A Fire broke out at Choczim, in a House where there were several Hundred Weight of Gunpowder, which cost the Lives of some Gunners, but happily made no great Progress.

LONDON, May 12.

A certain Great Man, it is said, is again prepared for a grand Debate, and has intimated, that about the Middle of next Week, he shall again attend his Duty in a certain Place; from whence we may easily conclude, that there will be a full Assembly, and warm Debates.

A Petition of a very extraordinary Nature is intended to be presented to a Great Personage by the Colony Merchants.

Letters from Cracow give a dismal Account of the fresh Excesses committed by the Confederates within the Districts of that City and of Sandomir; where they have plundered the Houses of the Diffidents, carried off their Provisions, and even the Grain destined to sow the Land, which is become a meer Desart.

On a motion being made in a great Assembly for an Address to his Majesty to have the State of the military Establishment in America re-considered and rectified, the Ministry declared, that the Troops are withdrawn from Boston, and will not be sent there again, until the Civil Magistrate calls for their Assistance; and that his Majesty had given Orders to have the State of the Commissions, and the military Commands in that Country, laid before the Crown Lawyers, in order that it might be revised and rectified, and put upon a constitutional Footing.

A Variety of Resolutions relative to America were lately moved, when, after long Debates, they divided upon the second Resolution, purporting, that the Letters and Orders sent by the Ministry to the Governors in America were the Causes of the present Discontents there, viz. 79 for the Resolution, and 196 against it.

On the Question upon the American Affairs last Wednesday, M. B--ke spoke for three Hours and a Half, without ceasing.

It is rumoured, that Governor Pownall, formerly Governor of Massachusetts-Bay, will, at the Desire of the Ministry, re-assume his Government, until the Distractions at Boston, and the Colony in general, are subsided.

We are told, that a certain Colony Agent has proposed to Administration to settle the American Disputes by Arbitration. Five Arbiters to be chosen by the Ministry, and five by the Americans; and those ten to be at Liberty to call in five more. The Place of Arbitration, London; and the Award to be made in three Months from their first Meeting.

It is said, that Lord Chatham has declared he will be at Westminster on Tuesday next.

It is asserted, that Lord C-----m has eight more Motions to make before the Close of the present Sessions.

We hear, that upwards of 60l. was collected for Mr. Wilkes at the Town of Worcester, by a certain Secretary, while he was at that Place, on the Circuit.

Mr. Alderman Wilkes did Business Yesterday at the Mansion-House for the Lord Mayor.

Wednesday two more of the Publishers of the Evening Papers were ordered to be taken into Custody, for publishing the Proceedings of an august Assembly, contrary to their express Rules and Orders.

Letters from Berlin, dated April 24, mention, that his Prussian Majesty still continues very ill of the Gout, but that it is hoped his Life is not in Danger.

We hear that some late Letters from Gibraltar mention, that the Emperor of Morocco had agreed to open the Communication with his Dominions, and, in the mean time, to send an Ambassador to England, to settle the Differences at present subsisting between the two Courts.

A patriotic Nobleman, and his Friends, have frequent Consultations on the present State of Affairs in America, the Result of which will be communicated to a great Assembly the Beginning of the approaching Week.

It is said that some very important Matters will be agitated in an august Assembly on Monday next, relative to Boston; and that the Revenue Acts will be again considered.

We are informed, that the Report of several Ships of the Line having been lately ordered to America, is intirely without Foundation; and that no Measures, of any Kind, will be carried into Execution on that Continent, till the Sense of two great Assemblies is known.

It having been doubted, by some Persons, whether an august Assembly could, with Propriety, call in Question the Affair of the sudden Prorogation of a great Society in a neighbouring Kingdom, it may not be amiss to mention a patriotic Gentleman's Opinion on the Question: "This H---- (says he) has a coercive Power over Ministers, in every Part of the British Empire; and I hope that the afflicted Country of I-----d, will obtain from the Legislature here, that Reparation which her own Parliament can no longer give her; and that your Policy and Interest will induce you to do that which Justice demands from you."

Mr. Sheriff Sawbridge is so well recovered from his late Indisposition, that he attended Yesterday at the Mansion House, at a Consultation held by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Mr. Sheriff Townsend, Mr. Bellas, Mr. Beardmore, and several other of the Common Council; as soon as it was over, his Lordship issued out Summonses for holding a Court of Common Council, on Monday next, at Guildhall, when the Affair relating to the three Companies making an Order not to obey the Lord Mayor's Precepts, excepting on Days of Election, will come on again. After the Business of the Court is over, Mr. Alderman Wilkes will be elegantly entertained by the Common Council of Farringdon Ward Without, at the Mitre Tavern in Fleet-street.

At the Court of Lieutenancy held Yesterday, Sir Robert Ladbroke was chosen President. Sir Richard Glynn, Vice President. William Beckford, Esq; Lord Mayor, Treasurer.

Generals. Mr. Alderman Kirkman, and Mr. Alderman Wilkes.

Lieutenant Generals. Mr. Ald. Halifax, and Mr. Ald. Romiter. Major Generals. Major Oates, and Capt. Stone. The Rev. Mr. Cockson Chaplain. Mr. Henry Saffery, jun. Surgeon. Mr. Bernard Rackstrow Clerk. Mr. Edward North, Armourer.

We hear from several Market-towns and principal Villages in Huntingdonshire, that upon account of the free and honourable Manner, in which Sir Robert Bernard was elected Member for the City and Liberty of Westminster, the greatest Rejoicings were made that were ever known upon the like Occasion; so much is that worthy young Baronet still respected in his native County.

NEW-YORK, July 9.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentlemen in Connecticut, who is one of the largest Traders in dry Goods in that Colony.

"There is nothing in Life that gives a clearer Demonstration of the Instability of human Affairs, than the Conduct of New-York; they have sunk their Credit by their late Conduct, as far as I can learn,---with this, and all the other New-England Governments; you have had Meeting after Meeting, Cabal after Cabal,-----dictated to your Neighbours in a haughty Strain,----value yourselves high on the Honour you have to be New-Yorkers,---the only People who have stood to the Non-importation Agreement; all this---this Week,---the next convinces the World of the reverse; for my Part, I am sorry for New-York, a Place I value so highly; ---if they import before the other Governments, they will lose the Trade of this Government;---for altho' Non-importation is no Virtue in us (as we import none of any Value at any Time) yet we value our Rights as high as any others;----and as you have of late, got all our Trade, we look on you as our Wall of Defence, respecting the Non-importation,---as far as it relates to the Preservation of our Liberties."----------There are several Letters in Town from New-Jersey, and other Places, of the same Import.

We hear that Answers to the Proposals from this City for altering the Non-importation Agreement, and opening the Trade to Great-Britain, except for Tea or other Articles, on which a Duty is exacted, have been received from Boston, Philadelphia, &c. And that they have unanimously and absolutely rejected the said Proposal,---being resolutely determined firmly to adhere to the Non-importation Agreement as it stands; and that the People of Connecticut and New-Jersey, have determined to have no further Dealings with this Place, unless the said Agreement is strictly maintained. And as the Condition upon which the People here signed for the proposed Alteration, was that Boston and Philadelphia approved and came into the Measure, their Refusal puts an End to the Measure proposed, so that the Non-importation Agreement remains in full force, and will doubtless continue so, till the End is obtained.

On Monday Morning last, at the House of Mr. Hollingshead, in Burlington, New-Jersey, departed this Life, in the 56th Year of his Age, JAMES PARKER, Esq; late of this City Printer, Comptroller and Secretary of the Post-Office for the northern District of the British Colonies. Till of late he usually resided at his House in Woodbridge, New-Jersey, where he was a Magistrate, and Captain of a Troop of Horse. His Remains were attended for 5 Miles out of Burlington by a considerable Number of Gentlemen of that Place, and at Amboy on Tuesday, met by a like Number, who attended the Corps to Woodbridge, where a numerous Congregation assembled at his House, and about 6 o'Clock he was interred near his Parents in the Meeting-House Yard. The Service was performed by the Reverend Mr. Preston, Minister of the Church at Amboy.

Mr. PARKER has carried on the Printing Business, chiefly in New-York, and some Time in New-Jersey, for about 30 Years, and was eminent in his Profession. He possessed a sound Judgment, and extensive Knowledge: He was industrious in Business, upright in his Dealings, charitable to the Distressed, and has left a fair Character.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.

A Letter from the MERCHANTS COMMITTEE of New-York, to the MERCHANTS COMMITTEE in this Place, dated July 10, 1770; with the Answer, &c.

GENTLEMEN,

IN Pursuance of the printed Advertisement inclosed you by our last Express, we are directed to acquaint you, that the Sense of our Inhabitants has been again taken, according to the inclosed written Proposals from our Committee, which was not finished until last Night; and as there appeared a great Majority for importing every Thing, except such Articles as are, or may hereafter be subject to Duty for the Purpose of raising a Revenue in America, and, in Consequence thereof, many Orders for Goods may be sent by the Packet to sail To-morrow or next Day; we are ordered to give you the most early Advice of this Event by another Express, that if your Merchants should chuse to send any Orders, they may avail themselves of a Vessel, which, we hear, will be ready to sail from your Port for London, on Saturday next. Another Opportunity will also offer from hence for Liverpool the same Day.

"We are very sorry our late earnest Endeavours to harmonize with our Brethren of Philadelphia, have proved abortive; but we flatter ourselves, the Event will abundantly justify the Measure adopted by the Majority of our Inhabitants, altho' they appear just now to be singular in their Opinion.

We remain, with great Regard,
GENTLEMEN,
Your most humble Servants."

To the Committee of Merchants in Philadelphia.

In the above Letter was inclosed the following.

THE above Persons are requested by the Committee of Merchants to divide themselves in Pairs, one of each Party; and to take the Sense of their Ward for, and against, Importation; by taking down the Names of the Inhabitants, after reading to them the following Proposition, without using any other Arguments, viz.

As by the Return of our Expresses from Boston and Philadelphia, we are advised by Letters from their Committees, that a Majority of both Places are for maintaining their Non-importation Agreements on their present Footing:

Is it your Sentiments, that we should also abide by our present Non-importation Agreement; or to import every Thing, except the Articles which are, or may hereafter be, subject to Duty?

It is expected that every Person, who is waited on, will candidly give his Opinion for, or against Importation; and that the Committee appointed to wait on them, will make a Return of their Voices to the Committee of Inspection at Mrs. Wragg's, on Monday Evening, the Ninth of July, without Fail.

By Order of the Committee.

Philadelphia, July 11, 1770.

GENTLEMEN,

WE are sorry to find, by your Letter of the 10th Instant by Express, that a Majority of your City have determined to break your Non-importation Agreement; a Measure which we think will be prejudicial to your own, and the Liberties of all America.-------Arguments are now vain-------To Posterity, and to your Country, you must answer for the Step you have now taken---- --The Disposition you shewed on a former Occasion, and the Letters we received from you, since the passing of the Act of 7 Geo. III. promised a different Conduct.------We cannot even "flatter ourselves the Event will justify the Measure you yave adopted." You have certainly weakened that Union of the Colonies, on which their Safety depends, and will thereby strengthen the Hands of our Enemies, and encourage them to prosecute their Designs against our common Liberty. We cannot forbear telling you, that however you may colour your Proceeding, we think you have, in the Day of Trial, deserted the Cause of Liberty and your Country. We are,

GENTLEMEN,
Your humble Servants,
And assured Friends.

To the Merchants Committee of New-York.

Captain Mills, from North-Carolina, informs, that on the 27th of last Month, they had a most violent Gale of Wind there, which lasted about seven Hours, in which his Vessel parted her Cable, and ran ashore, but he luckily got her off again, without any Damage; that the Water rose 5 or 6 Feet higher than common; that a Brig belonging to, and bound for Yarmouth, was drove ashore into about three Feet Water, and it was thought would be lost; that Captain Gooding, in a Sloop belonging to Rhode-Island, was drove ashore, and got off again; that Captain Greenway, of this Place, in a Schooner, bound for Providence, was drove ashore at the Mouth of Neuce River, but likely to be got off; and that the Corn and Grain about Clubfoot's Creek, had suffered considerably, but be sailing the next Day, could not learn what Damage was done further in the Country.

Captain Barber, from Teneriffe, on the 2d Instant, in Lat. 33, Long. 62, spoke with Captain Hall, in a Brig from Cape-Fear for Plymouth, 12 Days out, who, on the 27th of June, met with a Kind of Hurricane, as the Wind shifted to all Parts of the Compass, in which he lost his Fore Yard and Foretopsail Yard, together with his Foresail and Foretopsail, but luckily received no other Damage.

Captain Holmes, arrived at New-York from Bristol, on the 25th of June, in Lat. 38:23, Long. 67:2, spoke the Ship Carolina, Captain Friend, from this Port for London, 6 Days out; and on the 26th, in Lat. 38:54, Long. 67:15, he spoke the Ship Jenny, Captain Morrison, from Virginia for Glasgow, 10 Days out, all well in each Vessel.

Arrived at Lisbon. Captains Jenkins, Livingston, Johnson, M^c Cadden, Haselton, and Harr, from Philadelphia; Walter, Bryson, and Edwards, from Maryland; and Captain Hunter, from New-York.

Last Week Sir WILLIAM DRAPER, Knight of the Bath, arrived here on his Tour through the Colonies, and Yesterday set off for New-York.

Messieurs HALL and SELLERS,

Please to insert the following in your next Gazette, and you will much oblige your very humble Servant.

To the PUBLIC.

ONCE more let me draw my Pen. The Infirmities of Age have some Time since taught me the afflicting Lesson, that I cannot be otherwise serviceable to my Countrymen, than by forewarning them, whenever the critical Situation of their Affairs is such, as require the salutary Efforts of all honest generous Minds. And as I formerly acted upon a Principle, which allowed every Man a Right to watch the Steps of those, who appeared desirous of betraying their Country, so I now address myself equally to the Farmer, the Merchant, the Tradesman and Mechanic; and although I am well aware, by blending these together, I may draw upon myself the Reproach of setting up the Mob for Statesmen, yet I declare, it does not at all terrify me, it being certain, that the whole People, who are the Public, are the best Judges whether Things go well or ill with the Public, and that every Man, even the meanest, can discern a sudden Transition from Liberty to Slavery, from Prosperity to Distress, whether the Calamity comes from War, Oppression, or the Villainies of Men; in short, those oftenest judge the best, who have the fewest Biasses in their Judgments.

Much has been said by the Advocates of parliamentary Authority, in Favour of their Right in the Taxation of America, and many incontrovertable Truths urged on the other Hand, why that Right ought not to be admitted; it would therefore be impertinent to enter again on that Topic now, or recapitulate the Arguments on either Side; but one Thing, I am clearly of Opinion, cannot be too often repeated, it is an inviolable Adherence to the Non-importation Agreement; whether it is founded here upon a narrower Plan, than in the other Colonies, is a Question of too trifling Moment to merit Attention, neither are the Sufferings of Individuals to be put in Competition with the general Safety. Some may think it is needless to enforce what is sufficiently established already, and, that while the Sun shines, it is a Folly to guard against Rain. These would be right, if the very Error of Nature did not imprint a contrary Truth upon the Mind of every Man; my Advice is therefore to be upon your Guard; slumber not when you should be wakeful. The specious Pretext of relaxing in one Tittle of your Agreement, will surely introduce an Opening for a total Abolition of it. You are only now beginning to feel the Weight of your Contest against arbitrary Measures; you must summons up all your Virtue, and turn a deaf Ear to the murmuring Complaints of slavish Discontent; persevere; every Thing that is near and dear to you is at Stake. The astonished World attentively fix their Eyes upon you; the least Retreat therefore would intail such Infamy upon your Country, as would require many Generations of Vigilance and Integrity to wipe away. If I, who seldom go abroad, am rightly informed, there are now two Committees appointed in this City; the first, by the Merchants, at the Establishment of the Non-importation Agreement; the second, lately by the Mechanics, for Reasons, with which I cannot be supposed to be sufficiently acquainted---of these Committees I highly approve, and hope, for the Advancement of the common Cause, that the best Understanding is kept up between them---that they, in Concert, act openly, and above Board, for the general Interest, and not hang out false Colours, as by these, they will frustrate all Hopes of obtaining a speedy Redress of your Grievances, and of establishing, upon an immoveable Basis, the inestimable Blessing of FREEDOM.

I am the Public's very humble Servant,
NESTOR.

† JOHN WAY.

BROKE out, the 27th of last June, from a pasture adjoining Third-street, near Masters's mill, a four year old MARE, about 14 hands high, in colour between a dark chestnut, and a sorrel, has a long neck, holds her head high, has some mixture of the English breed, and a good deal of that appearance. She has no white about her, without there may be some few hairs near her off hind hoof. She has a sprightly look, is springy, trots and gallops pretty well, moves her fore feet in a strait line, and her buttocks are strong, and wide apart. It is supposed she would go towards Northwales, where she was bred, if not interrupted. Whoever will bring the said MARE to the Indian King, in Market-street, shall have TWENTY SHILLINGS reward. †

IS now selling, a large quantity of the best mens and womens, boys and girls, cotton, thread, worsted, and silk stockings, and mens knit breeches patterns; also a variety of fine broadcloths; all upon low terms, by GEORGE BARTRAM, at the Sign of the Naked Boy, between Chestnut and Walnut-streets, in Second-street.

To be SOLD, by HENRY LISLE, living in Philadelphia, near Second-street bridge,

NINETY-THREE acres of very good land, situate in Blockley township, bounded on the north by Haverford road, a little more than one mile from the Middle-ferry, on Schuylkill, between 70 and 80 acres of which are well timbered woodland, the remainder, being cleared, is chiefly within fence, produces good grass, and has a front both on Lancaster and Haverford roads; there are several very fine springs and runs of water, running through it, which would make it very commodious for a Tanner, besides there being none in that neighbourhood, and a great number of market people pass on both roads to and from market, that skins and bark might be collected with very little trouble; there is also some good meadow ground, it will be sold the whole together, or in two or three parts, as may suit the purchasers. The terms are, one third paid down, when a clear title will be given, the other two thirds in three or four yearly payments, or any longer time, not exceeding seven years.

Also to be sold, or lett, on groundrent for ever, several lots of different dimensions, situate about 300 feet from the south street of this city, and nearly on a line with Seventh street, on the north side of a fifty feet street, running westward from Southwark, and near to William Drury's Ropewalk; the ground is rich, and very fit for gardening; some of the lots are 230 feet deep, and from 20 to 60 feet front; they will be lett, or sold, very reasonable. To be lett, a large convenient bakehouse, with two ovens, on Dock-street. ¶

THE subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he has removed from near Germantown, to the west side of Second-street, between Vine and Elm-streets, in the city of Philadelphia, where he carries on the Turpentine Distillery, in all its branches; such as rosin, spirits of turpentine, turpentine varnish, white rosin, Venice turpentine, Burgundy pitch, clarified turpentine, for ships, masts, and yards (particularly useful in the West-Indies) boat-builders, block-makers, or pumps of any consistence; also for board fences, roofs, stables, and many other uses, which by experience has been found to serve instead of paints, and of more utility for preserving wood.

Philadelphia, April 1770.

EIGHTY dozen of grass, cradling and briar scythes, and ninety dozen of sickles, made ready for the ensuing season, a quantity of straw knives, tanners knives, and drawing knives, several pair of smith's bellows, iron work for grist-mills, the spindles and rines made after the old or new method; clothiers, timber, packing, tobacco, and other large screws; saw-mill and fulling-mill irons; large scale-beams, for millers or larger draughts; all made by the subscriber, living at the sign of the Scythe and Sickle, in Market-street, who believes they will prove as good as any made elsewhere; which he will sell at reasonable rates, wholesale or retail, warranted or unwarranted.----He has for sale, a good copper still, of about 85 gallons, at Two Shillings per pound, and its tin worm, at One Shilling and Sixpence per pound, also black-lead crucibles, of John Stephens's make, known to be good.

Whereas some merchants of this city have, for these 5 or 6 years past, imported from Great-Britain, large quantities of sickles, stamped S. PACHALL, in imitation (as I apprehend) of my stamp, which is S. PASCHALL, and on the credit thereof, have sold great quantities, many of which have been brought to me by farmers to alter, who assured me they bought them for my make, and as the workmanship is by no means equal to those formerly made by me, I therefore acquaint the public with this deception, which may easily be detected, as the letter S, between the A and C, is left out in the stamp on the English sickle. I should have notified this difference to the public at their first appearance, but had then declined the trade, and as I am now desirous of establishing my son in the same business (who is an apprentice to me) think it a duty to the public, and my own character, to acquaint them therewith.

A true Copy, ROBERT BAIL, Check Clerk.

LONDON, April 28.

BY letters lately received from a Gentleman, now on his travels into Greece, there is an account that the White Island, in the bay of Santorini, which, in 1707, rose out of the sea, to the astonishment of all Europe, has lately been observed to have received very considerable increase. This, added to the accounts received from France, of the disappearance of the island of St. Helena, and in Holland, of the removal of the mountains in Bohemia, together with the eruption of Mount Vesuvius, after an intermission of two years only, a thing never before known, affords matter of serious contemplation to speculative people; and, it is said, that the Jewish Rabbies have conceived hopes, that an ancient prophecy, which is expected about the present æra to be fulfilled, in favour of the restoration of their nation to the promised land, will be accomplished. It is remarkable, the famous Mr. Whiston predicted some very considerable alteration in the appearance of the earth about the year 1770.

The Town of Puerto Peblo, in South-America, has been burnt to the Ground, by a dreadful Storm of Thunder and Lightning.

May 2.

Three Men of War, with three Companies of Marines, are now at Spithead, ready to sail for Gibraltar.

At the Meeting of a new Parliament, the 50 Members who are sworn in, are appointed to swear in the rest of the Members, and are called the Court of Wards. Three Members make a Court, and, when once sworn in, nothing can hinder him from taking his Seat, but the Members, before whom the Person is sworn in, are subject to disagreeable Consequences, if they suffer an improper Person to be sworn in.

In the Debate on the Competency of a great Assembly, to determine on a certain Election, Lord Camden said, "that such Determination must be according to Law, and if it was not (and it notoriously was not in that Case) such Determination was like that given by the Judges in Charles I. Time upon Ship-Money. No Body doubted the Competency of the Judges, but the Judgment they gave upon that Case was condemned, and execrated by the Kingdom at large; that the present Determination is now in like Manner condemned, and execrated by the whole Kingdom; that the People have complained of it as a great and manifest Grievance, not as being the Case of any particular Man, but as robbing them all of their dearest and most valuable Privilege; that the Ministry ought, in Prudence, to permit this Bill to pass, in order to quiet the Minds of the People, who, if thus denied, and shut out from all Hopes of Redress, would most certainly seek, and obtain, a full Redress with their own Hands."

Lord Chatham warmly enforced, that the Ministry deluded the King; and his Eyes wanted opening, and that if it was not speedily done, this Nation would be undone. To which a noble Lord replied, "that he was astonished to hear that Noble Peer mention his Majesty's Name, as it was the invariable Rule of that House never to use it on any Occasion; but, as he put an if to his Argument, he imagined his Lordship was not in Earnest." When Lord Chatham repeated his Words again, without an if, and vowed he would for ever ring the Stabs and Wounds of the Constitution in their Ears, until they were healed, and the Right of Election restored to the People.

Lord Camden agreed to the Substance of his Speech, and concluded with a firm Declaration, that he would maintain the Liberties of the People against his Majesty, let the Consequence be ever so fatal; that he would never recede from his Opinion, and that he would ever repeat their Conduct to their Faces. Lord Temple then argued, that such Measures would soon be fatal to these Kingdoms; that he would now drop private Animosities, nor let the Cause of one Man engross the Minds and Attention of the Nation; that France and Spain were arming, and forming daily new and dangerous Alliances; nor did he believe this Ministry would wake from their Trance, until the Enemy knocked at the Doors, to acquaint them of their Arrival.

It is said, in consequence of a petition, signed by several persons of reputation, in favour of the widow of Mungo Campbell, and recommending her as a woman of blameless life, and a most deserving object of compassion, that the present Earl of Eglinton has, with a dignity becoming a noble mind, granted the unhappy woman a comfortable pension for life.

Letters from Legborn mention, that some French engineers are arrived at Genoa, to assist in augmenting the fortifications of that harbour, &c.

Great expectations were entertained that a very extraordinary matter would come on yesterday morning, to be argued before the court of King's Bench. It is a challenge to that court, and all the British judicature, by a person now confined for debt, in his own name, and that of all the other prisoners in similar circumstances, to show by what right, either in common law or by statute, persons can be committed to jail who surrender, or are willing to surrender, their whole effects, as a satisfaction to the claim of their creditors.

May 5. When the Court was moved at the Old Bailey to charge Patrick Kennedy with the appeal for murder, and also to have a warrant from that Bench for bringing back Matthew Kennedy, who was on board a transport ship at Gravesend: The Recorder told the Council who made the motion, that he had no power to stop him, nor even to hold him, if he had been present, unless a bill had been found in consequence of the appeal; To which the Lord Mayor made a very spirited answer, and told him, that he would take it upon himself, and would sign the warrant (which he did) and dispatch it immediately; his Lordship also ordered Mr. Akerman to detain Patrick Kennedy; and assured the whole Court, that no murderer should ever escape justice while he lived, and was able to bring him to it--and that he himself would be answerable for every bad consequence, which might arise from the supposed illegal method of bringing Kennedy from the ship, to take his trial at the next Quarter Sessions.

A Correspondent says, "It is now supposed that the squabbles of the political Clubs are nearly over for this Sessions. In one of which, yesterday, L--- C-----m moved that an Address be presented, relative to the Answer given to the City Remonstrance, which was over-ruled 85 to 37.---In the other Club Room, the sudden prorogation of a great Society in a neighbouring kingdom was discoursed of, when it was moved that copies of the Instructions relative to that measure should be laid before them, but it was quashed 178 to 86.

It is said, that Earl S-----pe came from Geneva to attend a great Assembly, on hearing that the important business touching the Right of Election was to be brought in question: The venerable Peer was determined to bear witness against the present mode of Government. He read his speech, which breathed the spirit of Liberty, and was heard with that attention it deserved.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Paris, to a Friend in London, dated April 23.

"Since my last, it is reported here, that the King sent for the whole written Proceedings of the Trial of M. de la Chalotais, Attorney General of the Province of Brittany, as carried on in the Castle of Morlaix by the wicked Agents of Duke d'Aguillon; and that the Perusal of the said Trial unfolded so vile a Scene of Cruelty and Iniquity, that it made the deepest Impression on the King's Mind, and determined him still more to see Justice done in an Affair of the blackest and most atrocious Nature."

It is reported that the Duke D'Aguillon, fearing the event of his trial, had effected his escape from France.

We have, from different correspondents, two very different accounts of the late behaviour of a certain popular Nobleman in a great assembly; one representing him as the guardian angel of the British nation, exercised in the most noble and exalted care of our constitution, the other as an angel of destruction, or scourge sent from God, to blast the happiness we enjoy in the fulness of peace, wealth, and rational liberty, who, after he had raised a tumult in the minds of the people, for his own private purposes,

"Rides in the whirlwind, and directs the storm."

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) May 24.

Great-Britain loses this Year, by the Resolutions of this Province alone, not to purchase Slaves, or British Goods generally, 'til America is relieved from the Burdens it has complained of, no less a Sum than £ 300,000 Sterling, at a very moderate Computation----blessed Consequence of attempting to raise about £ 13,000 per Annum in an unconstitutional Way, from all the Colonies, to maintain a Sett of Men, who can only create Confusion and Distrust.

June 12. On Wednesday night last, we had a most violent gale of wind from E. N. E. to S. E. with heavy rains, which has done more damage to the shipping and wharves, of any that has happened here in the memory of the oldest person living (the hurricane in 1752 only excepted.) Mr. Lamboll's bridge is destroyed, and the bathing-house also; all the fortifications from thence to Craven's bastion is one continued scene of ruins:--- The schooner Elisabeth, Capt. Taylor, was drove ashore against the fortifications, opposite Doctor Murray's bridge; soon after a large droger drove alongside him, and by the violence of the wind, accompanied with a high tide, bilged herself, and entirely destroyed the Elisabeth's stern and quarter, from the steerage bulk head quite down to her keel, and every thing in the cabbin was lost. At the Hard, near Roper's wharf, was drove ashore and bilged, the sloop Dove, George Lusher, master, bound to Jamaica, who was to have sailed the next day, the greatest part of her cargo is damaged, and she is now unloading to get repaired. At Legare's wharf, the schooner Experiment, Edward Darrel, master, was overset, chiefly by her being entirely unloaded, ready to take in goods the next day, and has received considerable damage; the Captain lost all his books and papers. The market wharf is a scene of ruins, a small schooner was sunk in the dock, with 60 barrels of rice on board, and a great number of market boats, and other small craft, destroyed. At Col. Beal's wharf, the sloop Sally, Jesse Hunt, master, received considerable damage, as did also two pilot boats, one belonging to Messieurs Waldrons, and the other to Mr. Spidel; the first of which, had her stern and quarters beat in, lost her bowsprit, was overset and sunk, but has since been got up. At Champney's wharf, a schooner, loaded with lime, was sunk. At Berisford's wharf, the brig Harriett, Captain Dawson, wind-bound for Jamaica, broke a drift, and ran foul of a schooner belonging to Georgia, by which they were both much damaged. Many other sea-vessels, and coasters, suffered greatly; in short, the devastations of that night is incredible. There is scarce a wharf below the Exchange but what has suffered considerably; and the damage sustained upon the fortifications, shipping, wharfs and cargoes, is estimated at upwards of one hundred thousand pounds currency. The gale did not abate much till next day in the afternoon. We have heard of no lives being lost;---but are in great apprehensions for the safety of vessels that might have been on the coast.

June 21. Last Monday Morning an Effigy was exhibited, standing in a Pillory, between Messieurs Dillon's and Gray's Tavern, and Mr. Tunno's Store, in Broad-Street, representing a Violator of the Resolutions of this Province---as the Writing about it expressed; which also menaced with the same Treatment, or Carting, Tarring, and Feathering, every Person who should presume to deal with such Violator. At 10 o'Clock, a venerable old Gentleman, cloathed with Authority, had it taken down, without the least Opposition, and secured in the Guard-House. But, in the Evening, it made its Appearance again, was carted through all the principal Streets of the Town, attended by a prodigious Concourse of People, and afterwards burnt upon the Green.---Moderate People appeared, in general, very much concerned at this Exhibition, on Account of some particular Circumstances, and would have prevented it if possible; but the Majority not admitting any Reasons to be sufficient, to justify or palliate any Deviation whatever from our Resolutions (by which we must now stand or fall) it appears, that there is no Safety in breaking them.
